E35 to C21: Dutch and Italian graffiti writers in dialogue

From 26 September to 14 November 2026 SpazioC21 presents E35 to C21, an exhibition exploring graffiti writing as an evolving artistic language that sets Dutch and Italian practices side by side. The project highlights how writing moves from public urban interventions to gallery contexts while maintaining its experimental and social roots.

Featured artists

- Mick La Rock — a pioneer of female writing, known for precise geometric compositions;
- Niels Shoe Meulman — focuses on the act of mark-making, abstraction and unconventional tools;
- ZEDZ — visual systems inspired by architecture and urban design;
- Antigoon — uses technology and mechanical devices to rethink the gesture of writing;
- Stefano Pane Monfeli — multidisciplinary approach that retains writing methodologies;
- Albertism — material-focused works using reclaimed industrial elements and oxidation processes.

Opening programme

- Saturday 26 September 2026 — opening at 17:00 with artists in attendance;
- Sunday 27 September 2026 — talks moderated by Pietro Rivasi:
 - 11:30 — introduction by Kolektivo Mestizo and SPAZIOC21;
 - 12:00 — Mick La Rock and Chinny Bond: “Past, present and future of Urban Art”;
 - 15:30 — Stefano Pane Monfeli: “Graffiti Roulette”;
 - 17:00 — Niels Shoe Meulman and Ferry Van Zijderveld / Ruyzdael Publishing: “Shoe’s Black Book”.

Why visit

The exhibition provides a comparative overview of how graffiti writing has become part of contemporary artistic practices. It is recommended for those interested in urban art, curatorial perspectives on street-to-gallery transitions, and anyone curious about cross-cultural artistic exchanges in Europe.
